

REBECCA J. BRITTON
4317 Ramsey Street
Fayetteville, NC 28311

EMPLOYMENT:

- September 2005 to present Hutchens, Senter & Britton, P.A., Fayetteville, NC.
Partner. Areas of practice: Civil litigation
concentrating in medical negligence, personal injury, wrongful death, civil rights and sexual assault cases.
- March 2004 to Sept 2005 Hardison & Leone, LLP, Fayetteville, NC.
Managing Partner, Fayetteville Office
Areas of practice: Civil litigation concentrating in medical negligence, personal injury, wrongful death, civil rights and sexual assault cases.
- Jan 1998 to March 2004 Beaver, Holt, Sternlicht, Glazier,
Britton & Courie, P.A., Fayetteville, NC.
Partner. Areas of practice: Civil litigation
concentrating in medical negligence, personal
injury, wrongful death, civil rights and sexual assault cases.
- August 1992 to Jan 1998 Beaver, Holt, Richardson, Sternlicht, Burge &
Glazier, P.A., Fayetteville, NC. Associate.
- August 1997 to present Campbell University School of Law. Adjunct Professor: Pretrial Litigation, 1997 to present.

EDUCATION:

CAMPBELL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
Juris Doctor Degree, 1992
Order of Barristers, 1992
National Moot Court Team, 1992
National Trial Team, 1992

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE at Presque Isle
Bachelor of Arts with Distinction, 1989
Major: English Minor: Political Science
President, Student Senate 1988
Vice President, Student Senate 1987
Vice President, Univ. of ME System Student Government, 1988

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES/HONORS:

North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers President 2006 – 2007

North Carolina Super Lawyers, The Top Attorneys Listing

Member, NC State Bar (1992); U.S. Dist. Court., E.D.N.C. (1992); U.S. Dist. Court, M.D.N.C. (1995); U.S. Ct. of Apps., Fourth Circ. (1995); United States Supreme Court (1996). Have argued at U.S. Ct. of Apps., Fourth Circuit, Jean v. Collins, et al., 107 F.3d. 111 (4th Cir. 1997).

North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers – Member 1992 – present; professional negligence section member, auto torts section member, Board of Governors 2000-2001; Vice President for Public Education 2001 to 2005; President-Elect 2005/06; President 2006/07; Attorney Advisor for Westover High School Mock Trial Team, Wade Edwards High School Mock Trial Competition, 1995-2000 (State Champions 1998, 5th in Nation, 1998); Co-chair 2002 and 2003 Annual Convention; Kelly Crabtree Award, 2002, for work in the Lesly Jean case (DNA exoneration).

Carolina Center for Civic Education, Board of Directors, 2003-present.

North Carolina Association of Women Attorneys, Board of Directors, 2004 to present.

National High School Mock Trial Competition, Board of Directors 2002-2005; Host Director, National High School Mock Trial Competition, Charlotte, NC, 2005.

N.C. Bar Association 1992 – present; Executive Committee for Litigation Section 2003 to present.

Outstanding Women of the 20th Century, 2000.

National Institute of Trial Advocacy, Instructor for Southeast Deposition Seminars and Trial Advocacy Seminar

North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, Instructor for Trial Advocacy Clinic, Spring, 2003.

Advisory Board, Paralegal Studies Program, Methodist College, 2003 - present

PUBLICATIONS:

Articles/Periodicals

Britton, R.: Co-editor, Barriers to Justice, NCATL Trial Briefs, May 2002

Britton, R.: Sovereign Immunity, NCATL Trial Briefs, "Barriers to Justice", May 2002

Britton, R.: The Lesly Jean Story: A Quest for Truth, A Quest for Justice, NCATL Trial Briefs, January 2002.

Editorials

Britton, R.: Join the Law Day Celebration, Fayetteville Observer Times, April 27, 2006.

Britton, R.: It's Not the Verdicts, It's the Malpractice, Fayetteville Observer Times, June 2003.

Britton, R.: Bar Association Campaign More Than "Hip Hop" Video, Fayetteville Observer Times, May 7, 1999.

Seminars/Papers/Presentations

Britton, R.: Discovery Sequencing for Maximum Effectiveness, "Pre-Trial Practice: Written Depositions & Discovery Seminar," North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, February 10, 2006

Britton, R.: Handling Special Problems in Disbursement of Wrongful Death Recoveries, "Wrongful Death" Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, December 10, 2004.

Britton, R.: Witness Preparation: What Makes Them Believable, "Heavy Hitters: How the Masters Win Cases and How Their Strategies Can Help You Win Yours," Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, May 9, 2003.

Britton, R.: Turn Around is Fair Play, "Winning Exhibits, Exhibits That Will Turn Around a Trial, Mediation or Settlement" Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, November 8, 2002.

Britton, R., Glazier, R.: Representing the "Wrongfully Convicted": A Popular Cause for Unpopular People, The Case of Lesly Jean: Justice Betrayed and Justice Delayed, “Suing the Sovereign” Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, October 11, 2002.

Britton, R.: Rules 9(j) and 702: Are We There Yet? “Medical Malpractice” Sminar, February 15, 2002.

Britton, R.: Handling Special Problems in Disbursement of Wrongful Death Recoveries, “Nuts & Bolts of Dollars & Cents” Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, January 18, 2002.

Britton, R.: Rules 9(j) and 702: Where Are We Now? “Medical Negligence” Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, May 4, 2001.

Britton, R.: Using Economists and Life Care Planners in Personal Injury Cases, “Learning The Ropes, Getting the Most Out of Your Personal Injury Cases: Winning, Collecting and Keeping Damages,” Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, January 12, 2001.

Britton, R.: Rules 9(j) and 702: Where Are We Now? “Medical Negligence” Seminar, North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers, May 12, 2000.